RAINY/CAMP
 A WEEKEND OF FOLK SINGING

January 27-29 2017

Lake Retreat
 Ravensale, WA

GENERAL INFORMATION

RainyCamp started in 1990 at Millersylvania State Park.

Rainy Camp is a folk singing weekend retreat now in its 27th year, held in January at Lake Retreat, Washington. Its workshops are participant-led and vary from Kazoo and Bawdy Broadsides to Storytelling in Song. Participants enjoy fine singing, good food, and great camaraderie in a lovely wooded setting. For more information, see <http://www.rainycamp.org> or call 425-998-6134 or email registrar@rainycamp.org

MEALS

- Lake Retreat has a wonderful chef and cooking staff. The food is great!
- Served buffet style both omnivore and vegetarian options are offered. We can also accommodate gluten free or dairy free. If you have special dietary needs beyond those you are welcome to bring along additional food.
- We kick off the camp on Friday evening with a welcoming meal. The Friday dinner is optional $9.50 additional.
- There is no alcohol allowed at camp per Lake Retreat Center rules.

WORKSHOPS

Friday evening starts off with a large all inclusive Song Circle in the Chapel.

There are a number of scheduled workshops on Saturday and Sunday, and always space left for do-it-yourself ones.

As RainyCamp is an offshoot of Seattle Song Circle, most workshops are in song circle format (participants take turns to lead, request, or pass), other workshops may be presentations or instructional in nature.

Subjects in past years have ranged from Celtic, Sea Shanties, Bawdy and Parodies to Gospel, French-Canadian and Songwriting. A materials allowance of $10 is available for workshop leaders. A small recording studio is also available.

Although the primary focus of the weekend is singing, instrumental jams are common and space is available for them.

There are a few locations for late night singing that are separate from sleeping spaces. The latest of these often go until around 5 AM.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Accommodations are dormitory buildings with rooms containing 2-8 bunk beds. Most rooms have bathrooms and showers in the room (except Lakeside cabins) Bedding is not provided. Mattresses are 4" fabric covered foam. Most rooms have a double bed as well. Rooms are heated and sound proofed. There are a few handicapped access rooms.
