RAINY CAMP

A WEEKEND OF FOLK SINGING

January 24-26 2020
Lake Retreat
Ravensdale, WA

GENERAL INFORMATION

Rainy Camp is a weekend folk singing retreat now in its 28th year, held in January at Ravensdale, Washington. We started in 1990 at Millersylvania State Park. Since then we have been in Carnation and now Ravensdale, WA.

The camp is centered on Folk Singing and song sharing, drawing attendees from the Northwest, and beyond. Participants enjoy fine singing, good food, and great camaraderie in a lovely wooded setting. For more information, see <http://www.rainycamp.org> or call 425-998-6134 or email registrar@rainycamp.org

MEALS

- Lake Retreat has a wonderful chef and cooking staff. The food is great!
- Served buffet style both omnivore and vegetarian options are offered. We can also accommodate gluten free OR dairy free with 2 week notice. If you have special dietary needs beyond those you are welcome to bring along additional food. Hilltop cabins have a refrigerator.
- We kick off the camp on Friday evening with a welcoming meal. The Friday dinner is optional $10 additional. We can box a meal if you call night of camp before 7 with preferences.
- There is no alcohol allowed at camp per Lake Retreat Center rules.

WORKSHOPS

Friday evening starts off with a large all inclusive Song Circle in the Chapel.

There are a number of scheduled workshops on Saturday and Sunday, and always space left for write-in ones. (2018 schedule shown)

As RainyCamp is an offshoot of Seattle Song Circle, most workshops are in song circle format (participants take turns to lead, request, or pass), other workshops may be presentations or instructional in nature.

Subjects in past years have ranged from Celtic, Sea Shanties, Bawdy and Parodies to Gospel, French-Canadian and Songwriting. There is a jamming space set aside all weekend. A small recording studio is also available.

Although the primary focus of the weekend is singing, instrumental jams are common and space is available for them.

There are a few locations for late night singing that are separate from sleeping spaces. The latest of these often go until around 5 AM.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Accommodations are dormitory buildings with rooms containing 2-8 bunk beds. Most rooms have bathrooms and showers in the room (except Lakeside cabins) Bedding is not provided. Mattresses are 4" fabric covered foam. Many rooms have a double bed as well. Rooms are heated and sound proofed. There are a few handicapped access rooms. No Single rooms.
